

Instructions to Author

This page describes the information that will be helpful to prepare manuscripts for submission.

The research articles should meet the following criteria:

- The work should not have been previously published elsewhere
- The standard language of the article should be English and should be free from grammatical errors.
- Conflict of interests should be mentioned in the copyright form.
- The article should adhere to COPE guidelines.

Types of Manuscript

- Editorials
- Original Articles
- Review Articles
- Case Reports
- Brief Communications

Article Processing Charges:

All articles published in our journals are open access and freely available online, after the publication. This is made likely by an article-processing charge (APC) that covers the range of publishing services. The APC is payable when your manuscript is editorially accepted after the final recommendation process.

Upon editorial acceptance of an article, the corresponding author (you) will be notified that payment is due.

The Article Processing Charges will be completely waived off for the current year 2021

Policies you should know

Open Access Policy:

Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences believes in providing free and complete online access through which research work can be read and accessed universally. In turn, this will stimulate a richer research experience. Open access articles are viewed and cited more often than compared to traditional subscription journals. The results of scholarly scientific studies are promulgated more rapidly and widely.

Peer review Policy:

Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences uses double-blind review, in which the identity of both the reviewer and the author are unknown to each other. This ensures impartiality and helps every paper get an unbiased review.

Model of Double Blind Peer Review

- TIMING – Pre-prints
- IDENTIFIABILITY – Double blind
- MEDIATION – Editors mediate all Reviewers interactions between reviewers and authors
- PUBLICATION – Peer reviews are not published
- FACILITATION – Review facilitated by a journal
- OWNERSHIP – Review owned by a journal or third party

Plagiarism Policy:

Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences follows ethical publishing as defined in the Committee on Publishing Ethics\(COPE\) and strongly acts against plagiarism.

Plagiarism implies:

- Copying words or ideas from someone else work without giving credit.
- Giving incorrect information about the source of the information.
- Changing words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving proper credit.

Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences uses Crosscheck by iThenticate Software to check the similarity content of the articles.

Corrections and Retraction Policy:

Corrections

- Before publications: PDF Galley proofs are sent to the author for proofreading and corrections are done before the PDF's are sent for printing.
- Post Publishing: Corrections are published if the publication record is seriously affected with regard to the accuracy of published information. Corrections are published in the subsequent issue under Corrections and addendum.

Retractions

Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences Retraction policy is based, in large part, on the guidelines and standards developed by the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).

Please see: Click here to view retraction policy

Withdrawal Policy:

Manuscripts may be withdrawn by submitting a letter to the editorial office stating the reasons for manuscript withdrawal.

If an author requests a withdrawal within 10 days of submission, the author is allowed to withdraw the manuscript without paying any withdrawal fee, however, if authors withdraw manuscripts any time after review and acceptance, a withdrawal fee will have to be paid.

For India Rs. 1000/-

for Other countries $50/-

Copyright and Licensing Policy:

Copyright Policy:

Copyright of any article published in Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences is retained by the author(s).

As per our licensing policy, the authors grant any third party the right to use the article, maintaining its integrity and its authors, citation details and publisher are identified.

Publishing Rights:

Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences allows its author(s) to retain publishing rights without restrictions. Authors grant Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences Journal a license to publish the article and identify it as the original publisher.

Licensing Policy

As an open-access journal Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences follows the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License which states that:

You are free to:

- Share — copy and redistribute the material in any medium or format.
- Adapt — remix, transform, and build upon the material for any purpose, even commercially.

Under the following terms:

- Attribution— You must give appropriate credit, provide a link to the license, and indicate if changes were made. You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the licensor endorses you or your use.
- No additional restrictions— You may not apply legal terms or technological measures that legally restrict others from doing anything the license permits.

Self-Archiving Policy

Authors are allowed to archive their articles in open access repositories as “pre-prints.”

The journal’s copyright & self-archiving policies are classified in Sherpa Romeo.

Publication Ethics:

As an open-access journal Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences abides by publication ethics and good publishing practices as defined by the Committee on Publishing Ethics\(COPE\)

Animal and Human Research:

Manuscripts involving animals or human’s experiments must obtain formal permission from the concerned ethical committee. Humans should not be exploited in any form; each author should produce a statement of consent from the patient before research. Similarly, animals should not be harmed or abused cruelly. Animal Experimentation should be properly monitored.

Statement of Informed Consent:

Patients should be presented with the information to enable them to voluntarily decide whether or not to participate as a research subject. Informed consent should clearly state the purpose, duration, experimental procedures, alternatives, risks, and benefits of the experiment. Authors are expected to obtain written informed consent with signatures from the participants. The consent document should include the following terms:

- Fully informed;
- Voluntarily given;
- Related to the patient’s condition and circumstances;
- Not obtained through fraud or misrepresentations; and
- Evidenced in a written form signed by the patient or otherwise documented in the patient record

Conflict of Interest:

In the article, the authors must include a statement declaring that they do not have any conflict of interest with any entity involved in the research. Authors should also disclose any conflict of interest that may have influenced their research, conduct, or presentation in any form.

Authorship:

Our authorship policy is based on the following:

- Each contributor should have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content of the manuscript.
- The order of naming the contributors should be based on the relative contribution of the contributor towards the study and writing the manuscript.
- Removal or addition of the names in the authorship should be accompanied by a letter of consent that is signed by all the authors.

Waiver Policy

Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences is an open access journal which means that all content is freely available without charge to the user or his/her institution. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of the articles in this journal without asking prior permission from the publisher or the author.

Moreover, Oriental Journal of Physical Sciences charges a modest publication fee to authors that is based on a sliding scale, providing reduced rates for low and middle income countries.
